Why students love The Cambridge School of Weston

If you want to study in the USA, Cambridge School of Weston is a private college prep day and boarding school that prides itself on providing a unique experience to its students. A truly liberal arts education, students are guaranteed to have a hands-on experience different from any standard high school. The school offers a warm, supportive environment, diversity in classes, and proximity to famous Boston universities. Its students are accepted to Harvard, Yale, Oberlin, and many other prestigious schools each year.

Academics

The Cambridge School of Weston is unique in its approach to academics. It has 300 courses and allows students to explore subjects in depth with the Module System. Classes meet from 75-90 min to give students a rigorous and immersive experience. It does not have many AP classes, but prefers an independent, high quality, complex level of coursework and college preparation, as evidenced by the success of its graduates.
